

Creative Writing topics

Tuesday 2nd June

Four-Star Food Review

- List the food items that would make up your ideal summer meal. Include one main dish, one side dish, one dessert, and one drink.
- Describe the looks, smells, and tastes associated with the meal.
- Finish this sentence: My meal reminds me of summer, because . . .
- Use the details you've collected to write a review of your meal in one or two paragraphs.

Wednesday 3rd June

Now how do I get out of this one?

- List ten chores or tasks you hate doing. Cleaning my room is an example of a chore you might not like.
- Select four tasks from your list and write a creative excuse explaining why you can't or haven't completed each one. Make your excuses as original and wild as possible.

Thursday 4th June

Diary of a Famous Figure

- List three famous people or characters you like or admire.
- Imagine you are one of the famous figures from your list.
- As that person, think of what you would do on a summer day.
- Write a diary entry (or blog post) about your special day as the famous person.
- Then write additional entries as you so choose.

Friday 5th June

Diary of a Pencil

- write a diary entry or blog post from the perspective of an everyday object from school (pencil, paintbrush, microscope, and so on).
- What would the object have to say if it could "write" a diary about its daily life?

You might begin a diary entry from the perspective of a pencil. . . .

October 20, 2017

Dear diary,

Today, I was sharpened. This was a very big deal because I had an important job to do today.
