

Mad Max: Fury Road

A film review by Samuel Flaherty

Click icon to add picture

Mad Max: Fury Road

- The studio is Warner Brothers Pictures.
 - It was released in 2015.
 - It was a long awaited reboot of the original trilogy from the 1970s and the 80s
-

Director and writer

- The movie was written and directed by Australian George Miller.
 - He was the creative brain of the original Mad Max trilogy.
-

Lead actors

- Tom Hardy played Max Rockatansky (Mad Max) and Charlize Theron played Imperator Furiosa.

Main characters

The good guys.

- Max Rockatansky, Imperator Furiosa, Nux, The Splendid Angharad, Capable, Cheado the Fragile, Dag, Toast.

The bad guys.

- Immortan Joe, Rictus Erectus, Slit, The People Eater, The Bullet Farmer.
-

• Plot

Max gets kidnapped by the war boys and he's their prisoner.

Imperator Furiosa was sent to go Gas Town to get guzzoline (Gasoline). She was sent by the Immortan Joe. Immortan Joe is the main villain.

She betrayed him.

Max escaped and met her. There was people trying to get to the Green Place. The Green Place was paradise compared to the wasteland Immortan Joe ruled over. But it was all destroyed.

Max had a plan. They went back to the citadel. So they had a big battle and freed the people from the evil rule.

• My Opinion

I think it was a very good film, with good effects and good action.

I like the way George Miller uses the desert landscape as part of the story. All the battles are shown in really colourful parts of the desert. Its probably why it was up for the best picture and best director at the 2015 Oscars.

The cars are great too. Some of them are like extra characters in the film.

I give this film 10/10.
